The Sentence for the Day

At the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2.10-11

The Collect of the Day

Almighty God,
who gave to your Son Jesus Christ
a name which is above every name,
and taught us that there is salvation
in no other name than his:
grant that as you have given your people
such peace and joy in him,
so they may work to proclaim his name to everyone;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect of the Week

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech you,
the spirit to think and do always such things as are right,
that we, who cannot do anything that is good without you,
may by you be enabled to live according to your will;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book Isaiah

The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined.
For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named
Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
His authority shall grow continually,
and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it
with justice and with righteousness
from this time onwards and for evermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

NRSV Isaiah 9. 2, 6-7

Psalm 8

- 1 O LORD, our Governor:
how glorious is your name in all the earth!
- 2 Your majesty above the heavens is yet recounted:
by the mouths of babes and sucklings
- 3 You have founded a strong defence against your adversaries:
to quell the enemy and the avenger.
- 4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers:
the moon and the stars which you have set in order

5 What are we that you should be mindful of us:
what are we that you should care for us?
6 Yet you have made us little less than a god:
and crowned us with glory and honour.
7 You have made us the master of your handiwork:
and have put all things in subjection beneath our feet
8 All sheep and oxen:
and all the creatures of the field.
9 The birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
and everything that moves in the pathways of the great
waters.
10 O LORD, our Governor:
how glorious is your name in all the earth!

APBA

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, ‘Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is “the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.”

There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.’

NRSV Acts 4. 8-12

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us;
and we saw his glory.

Alleluia

*The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew, chapter 1, commencing at verse 18

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly. But just when he had resolved to do this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, 'Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.' All this took place to fulfil what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet:

'Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son,
and they shall name him Emmanuel',

which means, 'God is with us.' When Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him; he took her as his wife, but had no marital relations with her until she had borne a son; and he named him Jesus.

NRSV Matthew 1. 18-23

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Father Paul writes – August 18

I welcome you all after two weeks of annual leave and a conference in Brisbane. It was a refreshing break and a chance to enjoy some warmer weather in Queensland. My thanks to the Rev'd Peter Brown, the Rev'd Stuart Langshaw and the Rev'd Paula Bull-ock who were able to fill in for me while I was away. My thanks also to the wardens, Katy Phillips and Sue Lewis in being able to handle any emergencies. We today welcome the Rev'd Cameron Burr as our preacher for the Feast of Title celebration at 8 am and 10 am. Cameron is the Anglican Chaplain for the Royal Adelaide Hospital and is a member of the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Anglican Council (NATSIAC). The Feast of Title celebration is a day where we give thanks for this church named in honour of our Saviour, Jesus Christ. The bible readings for today are set aside for the dedication of this church.

The Diocese of Adelaide is dedicating this month to raising the vocations of lay and ordained leadership ministry in our parishes and in Anglican communities. Vocations are no longer reserved solely for those called to ordination as a parish priest and are lived out in many ways as God calls the church into a new space. We are this month promoting Vocations Month and have invited the Coordinator of Education Programs at St Barnabas College to speak to us next Sunday. There are also promotional materials available at the back of the church for you to take. Potential leaders are being asked to attend an Enquirer's Day at St Barnabas College on Saturday the 31st of August between 9 am and midday and listen to a range of speakers, recent graduates, senior priests and lay leaders.

The Bishop of New Guinea Islands, Reginald Makele will be visiting Adelaide for the best part of a week later this month and will be our guest preacher as part of Martyrs Day on Sunday the 1st of September. Martyrs Day is a commemoration of the missionaries killed during the Japanese invasion of New Guinea during the 2nd World War. Bishop Reginald will also preach at a Martyrs Day Eucharist on Saturday the 31st of August at St Cuthbert's Prospect at 11 am. The Bishop of Willochra, Jeremy James will be the celebrant. The service will be followed by a lunch, at which you are all welcome. The day is also an opportunity to support the ABM Martyrs Gift. This year, the appeal is training people in leadership skills for the community and the church in PNG. The appeal is tax deductible. To make a donation, please donate on the day or at www.abmission.org/Martyrs2024

With every blessing

Fr Paul
