The Sentence for the Day

Jesus said to Thomas, 'Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe.'

John 20.27

The Collect for the Day

Living God,
for whom no door is closed,
no heart is locked:
draw us beyond our doubts,
till we see your Christ
and touch his wounds where they bleed in others.
This we ask through Christ our Saviour,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

Almighty God,
whose Son, Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life
of all who put their trust in him:
raise us, we pray, from the death of sin
to the life of righteousness;
that we may ever seek the things which are above,
where he reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When they had brought the apostles, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Saviour that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

NRSV Acts 5.27-32

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Psalm 118.14-29

- <sup>14</sup> The Lord is my strength and my song:
and has become my salvation.
- <sup>15</sup> The sounds of joy and deliverance:
are in the tents of the righteous.
- <sup>16</sup> The right hand of the Lord does mighty things:
the right hand of the Lord raises up.
- <sup>17</sup> I shall not die but live:
and proclaim the works of the Lord.
- <sup>18</sup> The Lord has disciplined me hard:
but he has not given me over to death.
- <sup>19</sup> Open me the gates of righteousness:
and I will enter and give thanks to the Lord.
- <sup>20</sup> This is the gate of the Lord:
the righteous shall enter it.
- <sup>21</sup> I will praise you, for you answered me:
and have become my salvation.
- <sup>22</sup> The stone that the builders rejected:
has become the head of the corner.
- <sup>23</sup> This is the Lord's doing:
and it is marvellous in our eyes.

<sup>24</sup> This is the day that the Lord has made:

let us rejoice and be glad in it.

<sup>25</sup> O Lord, save us, we pray:

O Lord, send us prosperity.

<sup>26</sup> Blessed is he who comes, in the name of the Lord:

from the house of the Lord we bless you.

<sup>27</sup> The Lord is God, and he has given us light:

guide the festal throng up to the horns of the altar.

<sup>28</sup> You are my God and I will praise you:

you are my God, I will exalt you.

<sup>29</sup> O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good:

and his mercy endures for ever.

APBA

A reading from the book of Revelation

John to the seven churches that are in Asia:

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Look! He is coming with the clouds;
every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him;
and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail.

So it is to be. Amen.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

NRSV Revelation 1.4-8

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me;
happy are those who have not seen me, but still believe.!

Alleluia!

*The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe."

A week later his disciples were again in the house and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

NRSV John 20.19-31

*For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Father Paul writes – 27th of April 2025 – 2nd Sunday of Easter

What a wonderful celebration last Sunday. We are now in the season of Easter between now and Pentecost, when we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit. We today give special intention in our prayers to Pope Francis who died on Easter Monday and whose funeral was held last night. We will also remember those who have given their lives to past conflicts, with Anzac Day on Friday. We will also celebrate Sue Lewis' 80th birthday today following the 10 am service!

Certainly, if you are a visitor today, please make yourself known to me or one of the welcomers and stay for morning tea. Please also fill out one of the slips in the pews so that we can include you in our weekly mail out and to make contact.

We hear today of another resurrection appearance by Jesus, the Sunday after His resurrection, this time to a disciple who was not present with the other disciples on Easter Day. The disciple, Thomas refuses to believe the other disciples who witnessed Jesus' appearance on the night of the resurrection until he sees him for himself. It is 'doubting Thomas' who is slow to believe, and yet someone who remains open-minded and continues to search for the truth. Once the resurrected Christ appears to him, his response is immediate: "My Lord and my God" (John 20:28). We, like Thomas, can be caught up with doubts and questions. As Thomas' own experience teaches, doubt is not the opposite of faith, but its pre-condition, leads us to search for the 'hidden God' who is close to us than we are to ourselves. I hope the experience of the Easter faith, in Christ Risen enables you to become closer to God.

Next Sunday in this Season of Easter and as part of Hope25, St Saviour's offers the first of two opportunities over the coming weeks to learn more about Jesus: his life, his death and his resurrection. The series is based on Luke's Gospel. This course is open to everyone, whether you are an enquirer or whether you would like to know more about the life of Jesus and the hope this brings to all of us. The first session next Sunday will begin at midday with a light lunch and the second on Friday night the 9th of May from 6 pm. There is a sheet at the back of the church if you would like to register or be in touch with me to speak further about the course. There are invitations to the course along with copies of Luke's Gospel for anyone who would like to invite.

Also, as part of Hope25, Burnside's Mayor Anne Monceaux will be the guest speaker at the next friendship lunch on Tuesday the 6th of May from midday in the meeting room next to the church. Mayor Anne will speak about her faith journey and in the context of being the Mayor of Burnside. The lunch is open to all parishioners and especially if you are new to the parish or wish to bring someone else along, a neighbour or a friend. The cost is just ten dollars which includes a two-course meal along with wine. The best luncheon deal in town! Please mark your name and the number coming at the sheet at the back of the church, otherwise ring Sue Lewis on 0431 151 552 to book.

Next Saturday as you are no doubt aware is a federal election. One of the polling booths will be at St Saviour's from 8 am to 6 pm. There will be a BBQ and a trading table. If you can assist with plants, cakes or any other produce for the trading table, please bring them along on the Friday afternoon to the church or on Saturday morning. Any assistance with manning the BBQ and the trading table would be much appreciated. The other thing is, don't forget to vote!

Next Sunday at 4 pm at St David's Burnside is the commissioning service for the chaplains at the local schools. The chaplains otherwise known as pastoral care workers offer support to students and staff. The chaplains are in part funded by the Federal Government with supplementary funds through the Burnside Interchurch Council. Please come along and support the chaplains as they are commissioned for the year. They certainly need our encouragement. Also, mark the date in your diary the Burnside Interchurch Council quiz night at the Burnside City Uniting Church, Friday the 27th of June. Tickets will be available soon.

The Easter edition of the Glen Osmond Anglican is available today. Please take a copy if you haven't already received one. Take another to a friend whom you may wish to connection with the parish or to invite to the "Hope Explored" course or the Friendship Lunch.

Your friend and priest,
Paul

What is Hope Explored?

At a time where there is so much uncertainty in the world, we explore the hope in knowing Jesus Christ as the Son of God. Hope Explored is a series about the life, death and resurrection of Jesus that examines his extraordinary claims. Through teaching from studies from Luke's Gospel, Hope Explored shows how Jesus offers us a hope worth having, a hope that won't disappoint us.

We hope you will enjoy each session which will consist of two short videos, a short Bible study, a talk and a discussion based on the talk.

*There are few emotions more powerful than hope.
But these days, hope often feels hard to come by.*
