Sentence for the Day

Peter says to Jesus, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.'

John 21.17

The Collect for the Day

Almighty God, whose apostles Peter and Paul glorified you in their deaths as in their lives:
grant that your Church, inspired by their teaching and example,
and knit together in unity by your Spirit,
may ever stand firm upon the one foundation,
your Son Jesus Christ our Lord;
who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

O God,
who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son to suffer death upon a cross, and by his glorious resurrection delivered us from the power of the enemy:
grant us so to die daily to sin
that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his resurrection;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Acts of the Apostles

¹ About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. ² He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword. ³ After he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. (This was during the festival of Unleavened Bread.) ⁴ When he had seized him, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. ⁵ While Peter was kept in prison, the church prayed fervently to God for him. ⁶ The very night before Herod was going to bring him out, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison. ⁷ Suddenly an angel of the Lord appeared and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and woke him, saying, 'Get up quickly.' And the chains fell off his wrists. ⁸ The angel said to him, 'Fasten your belt and put on your sandals.' He did so. Then he said to him, 'Wrap your cloak around you and follow me.' ⁹ Peter went out and followed him; he did not realize that what was happening with the angel's help was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. ¹⁰ After they had passed the first and the second guard, they came before the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went outside and walked along a lane, when suddenly the angel left him. ¹¹ Then Peter came to himself and said, 'Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hands of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.'

A reading from the second book of Timothy

⁶ As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. ⁷ I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. ⁸ From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing.

¹⁷ But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. ¹⁸ The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever.

Amen.

NRSV 2 Timothy 4.6-8, 17-18

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John, chapter 21 beginning at verse 15

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

¹⁵ When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, ‘Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?’ He said to him, ‘Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Feed my lambs.’ ¹⁶ A second time he said to him, ‘Simon son of John, do you love me?’ He said to him, ‘Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Tend my sheep.’ ¹⁷ He said to him the third time, ‘Simon son of John, do you love me?’ Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, ‘Do you love me?’ And he said to him, ‘Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Feed my sheep.’ ¹⁸ Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.’ ¹⁹ (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, ‘Follow me.’ ²⁰ Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them; he was the one who had reclined next to Jesus at the supper and had said, ‘Lord, who is it that is going to betray you?’ ²¹ When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, ‘Lord, what about him?’ ²² Jesus said to him, ‘If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow me!’

Pew Reflections

St Peter and St Paul – Sunday 29 June 2025

- Acts 12.1-11 or Ezekiel 34.11-16; Psalm 87 or Psalm 34.1-10; 2 Timothy 4.6-8 [9-16] 17-18; John 21.15-22

Today we celebrate the two great missionaries of the apostolic period. In the Gospel reading we see Jesus telling Peter to follow him – and Peter quibbling over the role of the Beloved Disciple. In the Epistle reading we see Paul at the end of his ministry, confidently declaring that God will grant him the crown of righteousness. He says, ‘The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom.’

- Lord, may I follow you willingly and freely, and may I have confidence in being numbered among those in your heavenly kingdom.

Simulcast to St Saviour's starting at 8.30 am -4pm.
Registration: $25pp. Registrations open next Sunday.

Father Paul writes – 29th of June 2025 – Peter & Paul, Apostles

I extend a warm welcome to all of you at St Saviour's where we today celebrate two great apostles, St Peter and St Paul. They deserve to be celebrated on separate days', but they are recorded as dying as martyrs on the 29th of June. They are remembered for their faith, their courage, and their leadership during the difficult days of the birth of the Church. They set the scene for two thousand years of Christianity. While their lives had different beginnings, they had the same determined vocation....to love and serve Jesus.

Next Sunday, I invite you to a parish forum which includes lunch following the 10 am service. The forum will look at updating our Mission Action Plan for the Parish and the Diocesan Vision Plan for parishes. The Parish Council met nearly three weeks ago to look at some of the presentations from the Annual Clergy Conference at Murray Bridge last month. They included presentations on making flourishing churches thrive, in creating communities of belonging and in missional discipleship. Various ideas were subsequently shared. It was decided to hold an open forum for all parishioners over a light lunch, and so I hope you can attend. This is not being treated as a formal meeting but an opportunity to have your say in our future direction as a parish. All are welcome.

This afternoon at 5 pm at St Michael's Mitcham, the Diocese's Flourishing Communities Coordinator will be the guest preacher at the Sacred Space Sunday Service. She will speak on how we as a community can grow in depth and breadth of faith and live it out in the world. The theme of the service is titled "The Times, they are A-Changing". You may recall the Rev'd Phillips took part in our Mission Shaped Introduction Course at St Saviour's last year.

On Sunday August the 10th, Bishop Sophie Relf-Christopher, an Assistant Bishop of the Diocese will be with us for one service at 10 am. This will be Bishop Sophie's first visit to St Saviour's. The service will celebrate the Feast of Title of the church, otherwise known as our Patronal Festival. This will also be a confirmation service. If anyone wishes to be confirmed by Bp Sophie, please let me know or speak to me further. Confirmation is for anyone who has already been baptized as an infant and wishes to reaffirm their baptismal promises for themselves. Also, confirmation is available to anyone as a teenager or as an adult who would like to be baptized and confirmed at the same time. It is where you receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, enabling God and His Son Jesus Christ to dwell within you, and to become an inheritor of the Kingdom of God. There will be an initial meeting for anyone interested in being confirmed following the 10 am service this morning.

St Saviour's is taking part with cathedrals and churches across the Australian church in the first trial of new translations of ten psalms by the Rev'd Associate Professor Matthew Anstey. For seven Sundays between now and the end of July, we are saying or signing these psalms at our Sunday Eucharists. The psalms have been adapted to new music and in contemporary language. We are encouraged to provide feedback so please let me know what you think.

A treasured former parishioner at St Saviour's, Bp Keith Rayner has left a bequest for the parish, where he attended for 25 years following his retirement as the Archbishop of Melbourne. The bequest has been received in the past week or so. We are extremely grateful to Bp Keith for his generosity to the parish with this bequest and over the years for his faithful service to the parish in so many ways. We sadly miss him. Bp Keith attended Sunday by Sunday and at the weekday Eucharists and certainly was a great support to me in my ministry.

St Saviour's will this year again be part of the National Grandparents Conference. The conference focuses on equipping and encouraging grandparents who have a desire to leave a living faith legacy for their grandchildren. The conference will be simulcast from St. Paul's Castle Hill in Sydney on Saturday the 23rd of August from 8.30 am to 4 pm SA time. The conference in its eighth year will feature a range of speakers on the theme this year being "Live Differently for their Sake". I would like to book for 10 people for starters to attend in the first instance at a cost of 25 dollars each. This will include morning and afternoon tea. We were part of the simulcast online in 2022 and 2023 and I am keen to be part of it again. For those who attended in previous years, we all came away inspired by what was delivered on the day. There will be resources available soon to register.

Paul
