Sentence for the Day

The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; ask therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Luke 10.2

The Collect for the Day

God of the covenant,
in our baptism
you called us to proclaim the coming of your kingdom:
give us courage,
as you gave it to the apostles,
that we may faithfully witness to your love
and peace in every circumstance of life;
in the name of Jesus Christ our Redeemer,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

O God,
you have prepared for those who love you
such good things as pass our understanding:
pour into our hearts such love toward you,
that, loving you above all things,
we may obtain your promises
which exceed all that we can desire;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the second book of Kings

<sup>1</sup> Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master, because by him the Lord had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from leprosy. <sup>2</sup> Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. <sup>3</sup> She said to her mistress, 'If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his leprosy.' <sup>4</sup> So Naaman went in and told his lord just what the girl from the land of Israel had said. <sup>5</sup> And the king of Aram said, 'Go then, and I will send along a letter to the king of Israel.' He went, taking with him ten talents of silver, six thousand shekels of gold, and ten sets of garments. <sup>6</sup> He brought the letter to the king of Israel, which read, 'When this letter reaches you, know that I have sent to you my servant Naaman, that you may cure him of his leprosy.' <sup>7</sup> When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, 'Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me.' <sup>8</sup> But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, 'Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel.' <sup>9</sup> So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house. <sup>10</sup> Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, 'Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored and you shall be clean.' <sup>11</sup> But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, 'I thought that for me he would surely come out, and stand and call on the name of the Lord his God, and would wave his hand over the spot, and cure the leprosy! <sup>12</sup> Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them, and be clean?' He turned and went away in a rage. <sup>13</sup> But his servants approached and said to him, 'Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, "Wash, and be clean"?' <sup>14</sup> So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean' NRSV 2 Kings 5.1-14

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Psalm 30

- <sup>1</sup> I will exalt you O LORD, *
for you draw me | up from· the | depths:
you let not my | enemies· pre|vail o·ver | me.
- <sup>2</sup> O LORD my God, | I cry | out to you:
you bring | healing | to my | life.
- <sup>3</sup> O LORD, you brought me | up from· the | grave:
you spared me from de|scending | to the | pit.
- <sup>4</sup> Sing to the | LORD his | faithful ones:
give | thanks for· his | holy | name.
- <sup>5</sup> God's | anger is | fleeting:
but his | goodness | lasts a | lifetime:
- <sup>6</sup> Tears may | flow through· the | night:
but | joy re|turns with· the | dawn.
- <sup>7</sup> In quiet as|surance I | say:
— | 'I shall | never be | shaken.' ‡
- <sup>8</sup> O LORD, your presence | keeps me | strong:
when your face is | hidden, | I am· a|fraid.
- <sup>9</sup> To you O | LORD I | cry:
and from | you O | Lord I· seek | mercy.
- <sup>10</sup> Of what value is my | blood· in the | grave?:
can the dust | praise you· or de|clare your | truth?
- † <sup>11</sup> Hear me, O LORD, and | show me | mercy:
O | LORD,· be my | helper this | day. !
- <sup>12</sup> You turn my | weeping· into | dancing:
you free me from | grief and | clothe me· with | joy.
- <sup>13</sup> So my heart will praise you and | never be | silent:
I will give you thanks for|ever, O | LORD my | God.

A reading from the letter to the Galatians

<sup>7</sup> Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow. <sup>8</sup> If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit. <sup>9</sup> So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. <sup>10</sup> So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith. <sup>11</sup> See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand! <sup>12</sup> It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised—only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. <sup>13</sup> Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. <sup>14</sup> May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. <sup>15</sup> For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! <sup>16</sup> As for those who will follow this rule—peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God. <sup>17</sup> From now on, let no one make trouble for me; for I carry the marks of Jesus branded on my body. <sup>18</sup> May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

NRSV Galatians 6.7-18

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts,
and the fullness of his message live within you.

Alleluia!

*The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke, chapter 10 beginning at verse 1

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>1</sup> After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. <sup>2</sup> He said to them, ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. <sup>3</sup> Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. <sup>4</sup> Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. <sup>5</sup> Whatever house you enter, first say, “Peace to this house!” <sup>6</sup> And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you.<sup>7</sup> Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house.<sup>8</sup> Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you;<sup>9</sup> cure the sick who are there, and say to them, “The kingdom of God has come near to you.”<sup>10</sup> But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say,<sup>11</sup> “Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near.”<sup>12</sup> I tell you, on that day it will be more tolerable for Sodom than for that town.

<sup>17</sup> The seventy returned with joy, saying, ‘Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!’<sup>18</sup> He said to them, ‘I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning.’<sup>19</sup> See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you.<sup>20</sup> Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.’<sup>21</sup> At that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, ‘I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and the intelligent and have revealed them to infants; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will.’<sup>22</sup> All things have been handed over to me by my Father; and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.’<sup>23</sup> Then turning to the disciples, Jesus said to them privately, ‘Blessed are the eyes that see what you see!’<sup>24</sup> For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, but did not see it, and to hear what you hear, but did not hear it.’

NRSV Luke 10.1-12; 10.17-24

*For the Gospel of the Lord.   Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Pew Reflections

Ordinary Sunday 14 C – Sunday 6 July 2025

2 Kings 5.1-14; Psalm 30; Galatians 6.7-18; Luke 10.1-12, 17-24

In today’s Gospel reading Jesus instructs seventy followers about spreading the Good News. Going out in pairs, everything is to be done systematically but it is to be done without getting bogged down in unnecessary preparation, without being distracted on the way, without wasting time on the unreceptive.

- Lord, help me to find ways and opportunities to spread the Good News of your love for the world.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of Pakistan.

Emergency Evacuation Procedures

It will probably never happen, but in the event of an emergency at church, please leave the building by any of the doors and assemble in the area by the old hall, near the pathway to the rectory. If necessary, assist others to get there. Please do not go home until it is approved as safe to do so by a safety warden, Tom, Ray or Beth. This is because we need to know that everyone is safe and well and not hindering emergency vehicles entering.

Fr Paul writes – 6th of July 2025 – 4th Sunday after Pentecost

A warm welcome to you all and to those visiting us today on this fourth Sunday after Pentecost. Please stay for morning tea in the hall afterwards.

In our gospel reading today, Jesus sent out 70 followers to towns and villages he intended to visit. As the gospel emphasises, the harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few. We might say the same! For us, like it was for the 70 followers, we'll only be able to do this if we depend on Jesus and each other, for Jesus encourages us to walk together, to be sustained by one another. As we go, we are left in no doubt about the challenges that await us, the lack of welcome, the opposition. The 70 followers of Jesus in the Gospel who did return were full of joy in what they had achieved. Jesus reminded them of the authority he had given them, where there was a victory over Satan. For us, it is not a question of what we might be able to do, so much as what God is able to do through us with the gift of the Holy Spirit.

A parish forum will be held this morning after the 10 am Sung Eucharist and following morning tea in the meeting room and over a light lunch. The forum will look at updating our mission action plan adopted more than two years ago. It will be an opportunity to share any ideas you may have in enabling our parish to flourish, in creating communities of belonging and in missional discipleship. This is not being treated as a formal meeting but an opportunity to have a say in our future as a parish. All are welcome.

Thank you to everyone who attended a Sri Lankan Friendship Lunch on Tuesday. Nearly 55 people attended and enjoyed the cuisine from Shanka Wijesundara and Sue Lewis. My sincere thanks to Shanka, Sue and all who assisted with the lunch and in clearing up afterwards. Pictured are two of the helpers, Gill Nield, Gill McKay along with Sue Lewis and Shanka Wijesundara.

The lunches are great opportunities to build community and to invite others whom you may wish to connect with our parish community. Our next Friendship Lunch will be on Tuesday the 5th of August. Registrations can be made from this weekend by placing your name on the sheet at the back of the church or by ringing Sue Lewis on 0431 151 552. The cost is just ten-dollars, payable on the day.

On Sunday August the 10th, Bishop Sophie Relf-Christopher, an Assistant Bishop of the Diocese will be with us for one service at 10 am. The service will celebrate the Feast of Title of the church, otherwise known as our Patronal Festival. This will also be a confirmation service. If anyone wishes to be confirmed by Bp Sophie, please let me know ASAP. Confirmation is for anyone who has already been baptized as an infant and wishes to reaffirm their baptismal promises for themselves. Also, confirmation is available to anyone as a teenager or as an adult who would like to be baptized and confirmed at the same time. It is where you receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, enabling God and His Son Jesus Christ to dwell within you, and to become an inheritor of the Kingdom of God.

St Saviour's is taking part with cathedrals and churches across the Australian church in the first trial of new translations of ten psalms by the Rev'd Associate Professor Matthew Anstey. For seven Sundays between now and the end of July, we are saying or signing these psalms at our Sunday Eucharists. The psalms have been adapted to new music and in contemporary language. We are encouraged to provide feedback so please let me know what you think.

St Saviour's will this year again be part of the National Grandparents Conference. The conference focuses on equipping and encouraging grandparents who have a desire to leave a living faith legacy for their grandchildren. The conference will be simulcast from St. Paul's Castle Hill in Sydney on Saturday the 23rd of August from 8.30 am to 4 pm SA time. The conference in its eighth year will feature a range of speakers on the theme this year being "Live Differently for their Sake". I would like to book for 10 people for starters to attend at a cost of 25 dollars each. This will include morning and afternoon tea. We were part of the simulcast online in 2022 and 2023 and I am keen to be part of it again. For those who attended in previous years, we all came away inspired by what was delivered on the day. There is a sheet at the back of the church to register or contact me by phone or email.

Your friend and priest,
Paul
