Sentence for the Day

Do to others as you would have them do to you. Love your enemies, do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return.

Luke 6.31,35

The Collect for the Day

Eternal God,
you have taught us through Christ
that love is the fulfilment of the law:
help us to love you with all our heart, with all our soul,
with all our mind, and with all our strength,
and our neighbour as ourself;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to receive the prayers of your people
who call upon you,
and grant that they may both perceive and know
what things they ought to do,
and also may have grace and power
faithfully to fulfil them;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Amos

<sup>7</sup> This is what he showed me: the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand. <sup>8</sup> And the Lord said to me, ‘Amos, what do you see?’ And I said, ‘A plumb-line.’ Then the Lord said, ‘See, I am setting a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel; I will never again pass them by; <sup>9</sup> the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.’ <sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent to King Jeroboam of Israel, saying, ‘Amos has conspired against you in the very centre of the house of Israel; the land is not able to bear all his words. <sup>11</sup> For thus Amos has said, “Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel must go into exile away from his land.”’ <sup>12</sup> And Amaziah said to Amos, ‘O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, earn your bread there, and prophesy there; <sup>13</sup> but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king’s sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom.’ <sup>14</sup> Then Amos answered Amaziah, ‘I am no prophet, nor a prophet’s son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees, <sup>15</sup> and the Lord took me from following the flock, and the Lord said to me, “Go, prophesy to my people Israel.”’ <sup>16</sup> ‘Now therefore hear the word of the Lord. You say, “Do not prophesy against Israel, and do not preach against the house of Isaac.”’ <sup>17</sup> Therefore, thus says the Lord:
“Your wife shall become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be parcelled out by line; you yourself shall die in an unclean land, and Israel shall surely go into exile away from its land.”’

NRSV Amos 7.7-17

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

A reading from the letter to the Colossians

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father. In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit. For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. NRSV Colossians 1.1-14

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life;
you have the words of everlasting life.

Alleluia!

*The Lord be with you. And also with you.

*The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke Chapter 10
beginning at verse 25*

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself." And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live." But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?" Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.' Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

NRSV Luke 10.25-37

*This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Pew Reflections

Ordinary Sunday 15 C – Sunday 13 July 2025

- Amos 7.7-17; Psalm 82; Colossians 1.1-14; Luke 10.25-37

It must have been an outrage to the Jewish authorities to hear that a despised Samaritan was being held up as a role model, rather than a priest or a Levite. Levites were members of the tribe of Levi, and their primary role was to serve as assistants to the priests in religious rituals and Temple services. They were responsible for tasks like maintaining the temple, singing during services, and keeping watch over the Tabernacle. Jesus was saying that the entire religious leadership of his day was morally bankrupt.

- Lord, help me always to help others when they need it, no matter what their religious background. Protect me from moral bankruptcy.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East and for that of Church of the Holy Sepulchre in the Old City.

Registration: $25pp.

Father Paul writes – 13th of July 2025 – 5th Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome you all as we come together to worship God and to give thanks for the many blessings he gives to us. If you are a visitor, I welcome you; please make yourself welcome at the conclusion of the service.

God's mandate seems straightforward: "love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength and all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself." But what does this mean practically in our everyday lives? Jesus provides the example in today's Gospel reading of the Good Samaritan to demonstrate what loving our neighbour looks like. In our own lives, on any given day, we could be walking down the street and come across a person on the footpath, lying on a piece of cardboard, with a notice in front requesting money or assistance. What do we do? What can we do? What would Jesus do? In that moment we can stop and bend down and ask the person 'how can I help'? It shows God's love and concern toward others. Just as God is always here for us. There are several outreach events coming up at St Saviour's in the next month or so. Our next Friendship Lunch will be held on Tuesday the 5th of August from midday. This is a great opportunity to come together in fellowship with others in our parish community but also to invite someone else or others too. The cost for the two course meal along with refreshments is just 10-dollars. There is a sheet at the back of the church to register for the day. Otherwise, ring Sue Lewis on 0431 151 552. The Adelaide Metropolitan Male Choir will perform at St Saviour's on Sunday August the 10th at 2 pm. Tickets are available through Clive Waters or in the phone numbers listed in the flyer in the pew sheet. Tickets can be bought beforehand or on the day. St Saviour's will also be part of the National Grandparents Conference simulcast from St Paul's Castle Hill. The conference will feature some great speakers, all of whom aim to encourage us in how we can leave a legacy for our grandchildren and children. The cost is just 25-dollars. Registration can be made through myself by email or by phone.

There has been a desire to have everyone's names and phone numbers listed for all who assist in the various volunteer positions at the church and on the roster. If you have any objection to having your name and phone number listed, please let me know ASAP. We hope to finalise this list in the next week or so, so that if you need to do a swap with someone, you are able to with ease! It's always good for me to know as well so I am aware, and adjustments can be made in the pew sheet if possible before the weekend.

We are blessed with the fine standard of music with our organists and choir each week at our 10 am Sung Eucharist. If you are at all interested in joining the choir, please let me know or speak to our Choir Director, Margaret Taylor. The choir meets for a practice at 5 pm on Thursdays and then again before the service at 10 am.

As we start a new financial year, I wish to thank you to everyone who generously support the Parish financially in maintaining our ministry at St Saviour's. If you are not a regular giver, there are several options available, all of which are found on the back page of the pew sheet. Besides giving through the envelope system and the direct debit system through your bank, we do offer credit card facilities as well. If you wish to give through a credit card, please let one of the welcomers know as you arrive or as you leave and they should be able to assist. Giving as part of our time, talent and treasure is an important part of maintaining the ministry of the church.

Your friend and priest,
Paul

Emergency Evacuation Procedures

It will probably never happen, but in the event of an emergency at church, please leave the building by any of the doors and assemble in the area by the old hall, near the pathway to the rectory. If necessary, assist others to get there. Please do not go home until it is approved as safe to do so by a safety warden, Tom, Ray or Beth. This is because we need to know that everyone is safe and well and not hindering emergency vehicles entering.
