Sentence for the Day

In returning and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and trust shall be your strength.     Isaiah 30.16

The Collect for the Day

Eternal God,
you draw near to us in Christ
and make yourself our guest:
amid the cares of our daily lives,
make us attentive to your voice
and alert to your presence,
that we may treasure your word above all else.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

O God,
you alone can order our unruly wills and affections:
teach us to love what you command,
and to desire what you promise,
that, among the changes and chances of this world,
our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Amos

<sup>1</sup> This is what the Lord God showed me—a basket of summer fruit. <sup>2</sup> He said, ‘Amos, what do you see?’ And I said, ‘A basket of summer fruit.’ Then the Lord said to me,

‘The end has come upon my people Israel;

I will never again pass them by.

<sup>3</sup> The songs of the temple shall become wailings on that day,’

says the Lord God;

‘the dead bodies shall be many,

cast out in every place. Be silent!’

<sup>4</sup> Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, <sup>5</sup> saying, ‘When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will make the ephah small and the shekel great, and practise deceit with false balances, <sup>6</sup> buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat.’ <sup>7</sup> The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob:

Surely I will never forget any of their deeds. <sup>8</sup> Shall not the land tremble on this account, and everyone mourn who lives in it, and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt? <sup>9</sup> On that day, says the Lord God, I will make the sun go down at noon, and darken the earth in broad daylight. <sup>10</sup> I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; I will bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head; I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and the end of it like a bitter day.

<sup>11</sup> The time is surely coming, says the Lord God, when I will send a famine on the land; not a famine of bread, or a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord. <sup>12</sup> They shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east; they shall run to and fro, seeking the word of the Lord, but they shall not find it.

NRSV Amos 8.1-12

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Psalm 52

- <sup>1</sup> Why do you boast of | evil, O | mighty one?:
for God's | steadfast | love nev·er | ceases.
- <sup>2</sup> Your | tongue plots | malice:
like a sharpened | razor, O | devious | one!
- <sup>3</sup> You love | evil more· than | good:
lying | more than | speaking the | truth. Selah
- <sup>4</sup> You love the | words that· de|vour:
O | — | tongue of· de|ception!
- <sup>5</sup> God will defeat you forever,
dragging you | from your | dwelling:
up|rooting you from· the | land of· the | living. Selah
- ‡ <sup>6</sup> The righteous will see this and fear: ***
they will | laugh at· you and | say,
- ‡ <sup>7</sup> 'This one did not take refuge in God: *
but | trusted· in great | wealth to· their | ruin!'
- <sup>8</sup> Yet I am like an olive tree
flourishing in the | house of | God:
trusting in God's steadfast | love for|ever and |ever.
- <sup>9</sup> Always will I give you thanks, for | you have | acted:
with all your faithful people,
I will hope in your | name, for | it is | good.

‡ Verses 6 & 7 combine for the second half of the chant.

A reading from the letter to the Colossians

<sup>15</sup> He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; <sup>16</sup> for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers—all things have been created through him and for him. <sup>17</sup> He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. <sup>18</sup> He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. <sup>19</sup> For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, <sup>20</sup> and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross. <sup>21</sup> And you who were once estranged and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, <sup>22</sup> he has now reconciled in his fleshly body through death, so as to present you holy and blameless and irreproachable before him— <sup>23</sup> provided that you continue securely established and steadfast in the faith, without shifting from the hope promised by the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven. I, Paul, became a servant of this gospel. <sup>24</sup> I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church. <sup>25</sup> I became its servant according to God's commission that was given to me for you, to make the word of God fully known, <sup>26</sup> the mystery that has been hidden throughout the ages and generations but has now been revealed to his saints. <sup>27</sup> To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. <sup>28</sup> It is he whom we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present everyone mature in Christ. <sup>29</sup> For this I toil and struggle with all the energy that he powerfully inspires within me.

NRSV Colossians 1.15-29

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

You have received the Spirit which makes us God's children, and in that Spirit we call God our Father

Alleluia!

*The Lord be with you. And also with you.

*The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke Chapter 10
beginning at verse 38*

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>38</sup> Now as they went on their way, he entered a certain village, where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. <sup>39</sup> She had a sister named Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying. <sup>40</sup> But Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me.' <sup>41</sup> But the Lord answered her, 'Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; <sup>42</sup> there is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken away from her.'

NRSV Luke 10.38-42

Ordinary Sunday 16 C – Sunday 20 July 2025

- Amos 8.1-12; Psalm 52; Colossians 1.15-29; Luke 10.38-42

Jesus is at Mary and Martha's home. Luke shows us how non-conforming Jesus' ministry was according to the times in which he lived in three ways: he is alone with women who are not related to him; a woman (not a slave) serves him; and he teaches a woman in her own house. Where should the Church reach out to today in unexpected ways?

- Lord, help me to surprise myself and others by doing things for you in new and atypical ways.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Amity Foundation, China

Father Paul writes – 20th of July 2025 – 6th Sunday after Pentecost

I extend a warm welcome to you on the sixth Sunday after Pentecost. I hope you are able to join us for morning tea at the conclusion of the service.

The Gospel today is about hosts and guests and hospitality, but Jesus puts an unparalleled twist on the notion of hospitality.

Martha's hospitality was made edgy because of her becoming burdened with the cooking and serving and focussing only on that, losing sight of Jesus. Mary's hospitality was more gracious than that of Martha because she focussed her attention on Jesus because "she sat at the Lord's feet and listened to what he was saying". The surprise is that Jesus affirms that the "better part" is to listen, which is the stance of a disciple. The "better part" Jesus promises is not just listening and being a disciple, but it is also sharing the new life that Jesus offers to others. Discipleship and listening cannot be separated. Neither can listening and serving. The effectiveness of our serving (and teaching, being disciples, caring for others) is determined by the way we listen to others and to Jesus through others.

On Sunday August the 10th, Bishop Sophie Relf-Christopher, an Assistant Bishop of the Diocese will be with us for one service at 10 am. This will be Bishop Sophie's first visit to St Saviour's. The service will celebrate the Feast of Title of the church, otherwise known as our Patronal Festival. It is where we give thanks to this church dedicated in the name of Jesus. The service will incorporate a confirmation, where Polly Kasprzak will renew her baptismal promises – which were made on her behalf by her parents and godparents. She will also be renewed with the gift of the Holy Spirit and receive communion. The Sung Eucharist and confirmation will be followed by a special morning tea. That afternoon, the Adelaide Metropolitan Male Choir will perform at St Saviour's at 2 pm. The choir recently gained acclaim with 12 other choirs at the Adelaide Entertainment Centre in a national gathering. Now, they come to perform at St Saviour's, which we are extremely grateful for. One of our choir members, Clive Waters is a member of the choir and so come along and enjoy their repertoire at the church. Booking details are available through Clive Waters and in the flyer in the pew sheet. Tickets will be available at the door on the day.

St Saviour's will take part in the National Grandparents Conference on Saturday the 23rd of August. The conference will be simulcast from St Paul's Church at Castle Hill in Sydney. The conference focuses on equipping and encouraging grandparents who have a desire to leave a living faith legacy for their grandchildren. The conference will be held from 8.30 am to 4 pm SA time. The conference in its eighth year will feature a range of speakers on the theme this year being "Live Differently for their Sake". The cost is 25 dollars per person and will include refreshments. For those who attended in previous years, we all came away inspired by what was delivered on the day. Registration details are available at the back of the church or in the pew sheet. St Saviour's is continuing to take part with cathedrals and churches across the Australian church in the first trial of new translations of ten psalms by the Rev'd Associate Professor Matthew Anstey. The psalms have been adapted to new music and in contemporary language. We are encouraged to provide feedback so please let me know what you think.

A new agreement has been made with Metropolitan Plumbing regarding the use of the church property for car parking for the next 12 months. The company has been allowed to utilise 10 car parking spaces at a cost of seven thousand dollars. These car parking spaces will be fully utilised during the week and to a lesser amount on weekends. The car park will not be available to Metropolitan Plumbing on Sunday mornings between 8 am and midday and for special events such as funerals. The extra income will assist our projected deficit budget of 19-thousand dollars this year.

Finally, we are extremely grateful for those who have generously through the Parish with a bequest over the years. If you would like to consider leaving a bequest to the parish in your will, a brochure outlining how you may do so is available in the narthex near the entrance to the church.

Your friend and priest,
Paul

Emergency Evacuation Procedures

It will probably never happen, but in the event of an emergency at church, please leave the building by any of the doors and assemble in the area by the old hall, near the pathway to the rectory. If necessary, assist others to get there. Please do not go home until it is approved as safe to do so by a safety warden, Tom, Ray or Beth. This is because we need to know that everyone is safe and well and not hindering emergency vehicles entering.
