Sentence for the Day

Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. Luke 11.9

The Collect for the Day

Provident Father,
with the prayer your Son taught us always on our lips,
we ask, we seek, we knock at your door:
help us so to seek that we may truly find,
so to ask that we may joyfully receive,
and so to knock that the door of mercy may be opened for us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

O God,
you alone can O God,
the protector of all that trust in you,
without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
increase and multiply upon us your mercy,
that, with you as our ruler and guide,
we may so pass through things temporal that we finally lose not the things eternal.
Grant this, O heavenly Father,
for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Hosea

<sup>2</sup> When the Lord first spoke through Hosea, the Lord said to Hosea, ‘Go, take for yourself a wife of whoredom and have children of whoredom, for the land commits great whoredom by forsaking the Lord.’ <sup>3</sup> So he went and took Gomer daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son. <sup>4</sup> And the Lord said to him, ‘Name him Jezreel; for in a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel. <sup>5</sup> On that day I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.’ <sup>6</sup> She conceived again and bore a daughter. Then the Lord said to him, ‘Name her Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer have pity on the house of Israel or forgive them. <sup>7</sup> But I will have pity on the house of Judah, and I will save them by the Lord their God; I will not save them by bow, or by sword, or by war, or by horses, or by horsemen.’ <sup>8</sup> When she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and bore a son. <sup>9</sup> Then the Lord said, ‘Name him Lo-ammi, for you are not my people and I am not your God.’ <sup>10</sup> Yet the number of the people of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which can be neither measured nor numbered; and in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people’, it shall be said to them, ‘Children of the living God.’

NRSV Hosea 1.2-10

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

A reading from the letter to the Colossians

<sup>6</sup> As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, continue to live your lives in him, <sup>7</sup> rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving. <sup>8</sup> See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits of the universe, and not according to Christ. <sup>9</sup> For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, <sup>10</sup> and you have come to fullness in him, who is the head of every ruler and authority. <sup>11</sup> In him also you were circumcised with a spiritual circumcision, by putting off the body of the flesh in the circumcision of Christ; <sup>12</sup> when you were buried with him in baptism, you were also raised with him through faith in the power of God, who raised him from the dead. <sup>13</sup> And when you were dead in trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive together with him, when he forgave us all our trespasses, <sup>14</sup> erasing the record that stood against us with its legal demands. He set this aside, nailing it to the cross. <sup>15</sup> He disarmed the rulers and authorities and made a public example of them, triumphing over them in it.

NRSV Colossians 2.6-15

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

You have received the Spirit which makes us God's children, and in that Spirit we call God our Father

Alleluia!

*The Lord be with you. And also with you.

*The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke Chapter 11
beginning at verse 1*

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>1</sup> He was praying in a certain place, and after he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples.'

<sup>2</sup> He said to them, 'When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come. <sup>3</sup> Give us each day our daily bread. <sup>4</sup> And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial.' <sup>5</sup> And he said to them, 'Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; <sup>6</sup> for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him."

<sup>7</sup> And he answers from within, "Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything." <sup>8</sup> I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs. <sup>9</sup> 'So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

<sup>10</sup> For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. <sup>11</sup> Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? <sup>12</sup> Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? <sup>13</sup> If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!'

NRSV Luke 11.1-13

*This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Pew Reflections

Ordinary Sunday 17 C – Sunday 27 July 2025

- Hosea 1.2-10; Psalm 85; Colossians 2.6-15 [16-19]; Luke 11.1-13

Jesus teaches us how to pray, and tells us to be persistent in prayer. We are to ask for what we need – repeatedly if necessary – and we will be given that thing. ‘Everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.’ God will respond to those who ask through the Holy Spirit.

- Lord, help me to pray for those things that are necessary and good for me to have.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of Bangladesh.

Registration, Fr Paul or on the sheet in the Narthex: $25pp.

Father Paul writes – 27th of July 2025 – 7th Sunday after Pentecost

I extend a warm welcome to you all, and especially to Jacqui Maynard who is the Pastoral Care Worker or Chaplain at the Glenunga International High School. Jacqui will speak about her role at the school which has enrolled more than two thousand 300 students, and lies within our parish boundaries. I hope you are able to join Jacqui and us for Morning Tea at the conclusion of both services.

The Gospel reading for today focuses on The Lord's Prayer. The disciples asked Jesus: "Lord, teach us to pray" and responded by reciting what we have come to know as The Lord's Prayer. Jesus directed to them (and of course, us) to whom we should pray. We should pray to God, who Jesus explained is a generous and caring father. Most importantly, he teaches us for what we should pray. He tells us that we should pray not simply for immediate needs (daily bread) but, more importantly, for ultimate needs such as furthering of the kingdom, the gift of forgiveness and protection from anything that would destroy our relationship with God.

Jesus also teaches us that the One to whom we pray is our 'Father' whose love and care for us is unlimited. This deeply intimate and personal relationship with God inspires in us the confidence to pray with 'persistence' and the realisation that what we pray for is not as important as the fact that we address God in such intimate terms. Prayer always deepens our relationship with God, and this is already an answer to prayer.

There are a number of key events next month. On Sunday August the 10th, Bp Sophie Relf-Christopher will preside and preach at our "Feast of Title" Service, otherwise known as our Patronal Festival. The one and only service on the day at 10 am will incorporate the confirmation of Polly Kasprzak. I do encourage you to come along where we give thanks for the church of St Saviour and as Bp Sophie confirms Polly. The service will be followed by a special morning tea.

That afternoon, I hope you can stay on to hear the Metropolitan Male Choir perform a concert at St Saviour's at 2 pm, as part of our Feast of Title celebrations. Called a Pleasant Sunday Afternoon, the choir will sing from a selection of classical, religious and secular and pop genres. Pianist, Jonathon Wong will be the supporting artist. Tickets are just 25-dollars; 20-dollars concession, which is a bargain compared to their other ticketing events for such events with the choir. Tickets can be booked through the Parish Office 8379 4114 or through Clive Waters on 0414 489 972. Tickets also available at the door.

On Sunday the 24th of August, the Rev'd Dr Joan Riley, the Principal of St Barnabas Theological College will be our guest preacher as part of Vocations Month in the Diocese. St Barnabas College along with the diocese is dedicating the month to raising awareness of vocations to lay and ordained ministry in our churches and Anglican communities. The services on the Sunday will also celebrate St Bartholomew who was called by Jesus to be one of his disciples.

The day before, Saturday the 23rd of August, St Saviour's will simulcast the National Grandparents Conference from St Paul's Castle Hill. The conference aims to equip and encourage grandparents who have a desire to leave a living faith legacy for their grandchildren or great grandchildren. An exceptional range of speakers will share their insights and experiences. The conference will be held from 8.30 am to 4 pm at St Saviour's. The cost is just 25-dollars, and this includes refreshments on the day. There are flyers, other information about the conference and registration details at the back of the church. St Saviour's has been part of the conference twice before and certainly it has been excellent.

Don't forget our next Friendship Lunch is on Tuesday the 5th of August from midday in the meeting room of the church. The cost for the two-course meal plus refreshments is just 10-dollars. An opportunity to invite someone else along who you may wish a share a meal with. Registration can be made in the narthex or by contacting Sue Lewis on 0431 151 552.

St Saviour's is hosting the South East Deanery Mothers Union gathering next Wednesday the 30th of July. The Chaplain of the Mothers Union, Gethzi Devasagayam will be in attendance for the service and gathering.

Over the past six weeks, we have been trialling some contemporary music settings with updated psalm settings at our services. Any feedback for any of the psalms can be passed onto myself or to the Rev's Dr Matthew Anstey at www.ansteypsalter.com

Finally, the Diocese of Willochra celebrates its 110th anniversary next weekend. There will be several people from St Saviours attending the celebrations next Saturday at the Bishops House at Gladstone. This includes Helen and I, Mary Catford and Sr Cheryl Wiseman. The celebrations will continue next Sunday with a Thanksgiving Eucharist at the Cathedral of St Peter and St Paul at Port Pirie.

Your friend and priest,
Paul
