Father Paul writes – 7th of June 2026 –

Today's bible readings focus on faith in God and His Son Jesus Christ, in the calling of Abraham and one of Jesus' apostles Matthew, in Jesus eating with sinners and with two healings. Our Old Testament reading from Genesis recalls Abram (Abraham) being called to leave his country and travel to another, which would become a great nation. The NT reading speaks of Abraham's faith in God in travelling to this new country, while in our Gospel reading, Jesus shocks the religious leaders by eating and drinking with sinners and calling one of them to be an apostle. As Jesus was eating and drinking with sinners, we gather around the Lord's Table as people today, and where we also need God's forgiveness and healing and to go out into the world acting with compassion for others.

Over the past week, we have marked two events, the Global Day of Parents on Monday and National Reconciliation Week. The value of the Global Day of Parents may have been lost for many people. However, the annual event offers an opportunity to thank our parents, those who are still with us and those faithfully departed, for all they have done. Hardly a day goes by without thinking of my parents, in being instrumental in forming my personality, values and critical thinking and the support they have given me in my life. Over the past week, we have also celebrated National Reconciliation Week. The annual observance finished on Wednesday, but the event is about creating a future where First Nations people are acknowledged, respected and celebrated.

Have you ever thought of how to meditate in a Christian environment? Well, a four-week introductory course is being offered at St Saviour's from Wednesday July the 1st. The course has never been offered before and has been developed by a Roman Catholic priest, Father Laurence Freeman, who is the Director of the World Community for Christian Meditation. It will be held each week for an hour or so on Wednesday nights at 7 pm during July, so please come along and be part of it by registering through dianneschaefer@yahoo.com.au

Our next BBQ fundraiser will be on Saturday the 27th of June at Mitre 10 at Unley. The monthly fundraiser for the church is also a great opportunity as an outreach to the wider community. The BBQ is run from 9.30 am to 3 pm. If you would like to help for an hour or so, just place your name on the sheet at the back of the church or ring Rob Symons on 0419 834 982.

Your friend and priest, Paul

Sentence for the Day

Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners. Matthew 9.12-13

The Collect for the Day

O God,
you have assured the human family of eternal life
through Jesus Christ our Saviour:
deliver us from the death of sin
and raise us to new life in him,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

O Lord,
from whom alone all good things come:
grant that by your holy inspiration
we may think those things that are good,
and by your merciful guiding may perform them;
through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

A reading from the book of Genesis

<sup>1</sup> Now the Lord said to Abram, ‘Go from your country and your kindred and your father’s house to the land that I will show you. <sup>2</sup> I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. <sup>3</sup> I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.’ <sup>4</sup> So Abram went, as the Lord had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. <sup>5</sup> Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother’s son Lot, and all the possessions that they had gathered, and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran; and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan. When they had come to the land of Canaan, <sup>6</sup> Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. <sup>7</sup> Then the Lord appeared to Abram, and said, ‘To your offspring I will give this land.’ So he built there an altar to the Lord, who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup> From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the Lord and invoked the name of the Lord. <sup>9</sup> And Abram journeyed on by stages towards the Negeb.

NRSV Genesis 12.1-9

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Psalm 33.1-12

<sup>1</sup> Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous:
for it befits the just to praise him.

and sing his praise to the lute of ten strings.

make sweetest melody, with shouts of praise.

and all his works are faithful.

<sup>5</sup> He loves righteousness and justice:
the earth is filled with the loving-kindness of the Lord.

<sup>6</sup> By the word of the Lord were the heavens made:
and their numberless stars by the breath of his mouth.

<sup>7</sup> He gathered the waters of the sea as in a water-skin:
and laid up the deep in his treasuries.

<sup>8</sup> Let the whole earth fear the Lord:
and let all the inhabitants of the world
stand in awe of him.

<sup>9</sup> For he spoke, and it was done:
he commanded, and it stood fast.

he brings to nothing the devices of the peoples.

<sup>11</sup> But the counsels of the Lord shall endure for ever:
the purposes of his heart from generation to generation.

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is that nation whose God is the Lord:
the people he chose to be his own possession.

APBA

A reading from the book of Romans

<sup>13</sup> For the promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup> If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. <sup>15</sup> For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation. <sup>16</sup> For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, <sup>17</sup> as it is written, ‘I have made you the father of many nations’)—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. <sup>18</sup> Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become ‘the father of many nations’, according to what was said, ‘So numerous shall your descendants be.’ <sup>19</sup> He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah’s womb. <sup>20</sup> No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, <sup>21</sup> being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. <sup>22</sup> Therefore his faith ‘was reckoned to him as righteousness.’ <sup>23</sup> Now the words, ‘it was reckoned to him’, were written not for his sake alone, <sup>24</sup> but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, <sup>25</sup> who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

NRSV Romans 4.13-25

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.
whose mercy endures for ever.

Alleluia!

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew chapter 9, beginning at verse 9

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>9</sup> As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed him. <sup>10</sup> And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax-collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. <sup>11</sup> When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, 'Why does your teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners?' <sup>12</sup> But when he heard this, he said, 'Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. <sup>13</sup> Go and learn what this means, "I desire mercy, not sacrifice." For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners.' <sup>18</sup> While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, 'My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.' <sup>19</sup> And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. <sup>20</sup> Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, <sup>21</sup> for she said to herself, 'If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.' <sup>22</sup> Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, 'Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.' And instantly the woman was made well. <sup>23</sup> When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute-players and the crowd making a commotion, <sup>24</sup> he said, 'Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. <sup>25</sup> But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. <sup>26</sup> And the report of this spread throughout that district.

NRSV Matthew 9.9-13; 18-26

*This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ABM Tax Appeal

A hand up is sometimes all that's needed to help people lift themselves out of poverty. A loan for a piglet. Some gardening tools and seeds. A water tank close to home.

Our church partners across Asia, Africa and the Pacific are extending that helping hand: strengthening food security, building up livelihoods and walking alongside communities to achieve long-term change.

Your tax-deductible gift funds this crucial work, helping end the cycle of poverty. **Tax Appeal 2026 – Anglicans in Development**

New Choir Members

St Saviour's Glen Osmond is looking for new members to join its choir. If you enjoy singing and would like to be part of the choir, please speak to the Choir Director, Margaret Taylor or call her on 8379 7227 or 0414 245 303. The choir does practice at 5 pm on Thursdays for an hour and again at 9.15 am on Sunday mornings. The criteria is to be available for at least one of those practices if you are participating at 10 am on that Sunday. You are welcome to come along and try in the first instance!

Cemetery AGM

The AGM for the Glen Osmond Cemetery will be held at 2 pm on Wednesday the 19th of June, 2026 at St Saviour's. The meeting will be an opportunity to hear of the efforts to maintain the cemetery over the past 12 months and any other developments. All are welcome.

Farewell

Our Office Administration Officer, Bobbie Luks for nearly 10 years is retiring at the end of the month. As a way of saying thank you, we will have a special morning tea for her after the 10 am Sung Eucharist on Sunday the 28th of June, 2026. Efforts to find a replacement for Bobbie have been ongoing for some months. The Parish Administrator for the Parish of Stirling, Stephanie Lou-Reed has agreed to assist in the interim as part of the transition to a new Administration Officer at Glen Osmond. We hope to appoint a new Parish Administrator in the coming weeks.

Quiz Night –

The annual Burnside InterChurch Quiz Night is being held on Friday the 19th of June at 7 pm. at the Burnside City Uniting Church. Tickets are available by using the QR code found in the pew sheet. If you do book, please let Fr Paul know. If unable to book through the QR code, please let Fr Paul know and he will book on your behalf. The cost is 25-dollars each. The evening is a fundraiser for the Chaplains at the schools in the Burnside area. Donations are also being sought for the silent auction on the night. Any assistance would be greatly appreciated. Always a fun night!
