Vision Statement:

Sharing the love of Jesus Christ and the hope it brings to all
St Saviour's resides on the lands of the Kaurna people whom we acknowledge as the original custodians of the Adelaide Region

Father Paul writes 19th of July 2026

We today welcome the Rev'd Deb Jeanes as our guest preacher at both the 8 am and 10 am services. Deb is the Chaplain at St Peter's Woodlands Grammar School at Glenelg and is licensed as the Deacon for our Deanery area, namely the Torrens Deanery. As well, we welcome the Families, Youth and Children's Ministry Facilitator for the Diocese, Kat Elliott. She will speak about her role and the efforts being made to support parishes in this ministry.

We hear today of another parable or a story from Jesus related to nature, about the problems we all sometimes have with weeds in our gardens. We all know about them particularly at this time of the year! Jesus uses this parable to highlight about the good and the evil in the world. We are also reminded in the first reading from Isaiah that God alone has demonstrated his control of history, that he is the only God and that we are his witnesses. In our New Testament reading, Paul says there is a new life for us who live in Jesus Christ. But more than that: we have God's presence through the Holy Spirit to guide us and strengthen us, as we live our lives. We are not on our own.

Next Saturday at 3 pm, Alice Davidson and Ted Jennings will be married at St Saviour's. It will be a joy for me to be their wedding celebrant, having got to know them particularly well over the past year and in becoming parishioners. We are all invited to come along and share in this joyous occasion with their families and friends.

Our next Mitre 10 BBQ at Unley will be next Saturday. The BBQ is a fundraiser for the parish and is a good outreach opportunity. If you are able to help, please place your name on the roster at the back of the church.

Our next Friendship Lunch will be held on Tuesday the 4th of August. A great opportunity to share a meal with parishioners but also to invite others whom you would like to bring along, a neighbour, a friend or friends or someone who you believe would enjoy some company. The lunch is just 10-dollars and includes a two-course menu and wine. You can register by placing your name and the number of those who intend to come along on the sheet in the narthex. Otherwise, ring Sue Lewis on 0431 151 552.

Your friend and priest,

Paul

Sentence for the Day

You, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness. Psalm 86.15

The Collect for the Day

Saving God,
in Jesus Christ you opened for us a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts
and constant wills to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

O God,
you alone can order our unruly wills and affections:
teach us to love what you command,
and to desire what you promise,
that, among the changes and chances of this world,
our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Isaiah

⁶ Thus says the Lord, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the Lord of hosts: I am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god. ⁷ Who is like me? Let them proclaim it, let them declare and set it forth before me. Who has announced from of old the things to come? Let them tell us what is yet to be. ⁸ Do not fear, or be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? You are my witnesses! Is there any god besides me? There is no other rock; I know not one.

Isaiah 44.6-8

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Psalms 86. 11-17

¹¹ Show me your way, O Lord, and I will walk in your truth: let my heart delight to fear your name.

¹² I will praise you, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify your name for ever.

¹³ For great is your abiding love toward me: and you have delivered my life from the lowest depths of the grave.

¹⁴ The insolent, O God, have risen against me: a ruthless band seek my life, they have not set God before their eyes.

¹⁵ But you, Lord, are a God gracious and compassionate: slow to anger, full of goodness and truth.

¹⁶ Turn to me and be merciful, give your strength to your servant: and save the child of your handmaid.

¹⁷ Show me some token of your goodness: that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed, because you, Lord, are my helper and my comforter.

APBA

A reading from the letter of Romans

¹² So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh— ¹³ for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴ For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. ¹⁵ For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, ‘Abba! Father!’ ¹⁶ it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, ¹⁷ and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him. ¹⁸ I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. ¹⁹ For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; ²⁰ for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope ²¹ that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. ²² We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; ²³ and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴ For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? ²⁵ But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Romans 8.12-25

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew chapter 13, beginning at verse 24

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

²⁴ He put before them another parable: ‘The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; ²⁵ but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. ²⁶ So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. ²⁷ And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, “Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?” ²⁸ He answered, “An enemy has done this.” The slaves said to him, “Then do you want us to go and gather them?” ²⁹ But he replied, “No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. ³⁰ Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.” ’ ³⁶ Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, ‘Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.’ ³⁷ He answered, ‘The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; ³⁸ the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, ³⁹ and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. ⁴⁰ Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. ⁴¹ The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, ⁴² and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. ⁴³ Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

Matthew 13.24-30; 13.36-43

*This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
