Vision Statement:

Sharing the love of Jesus Christ and the hope it brings to all St Saviour's resides on the lands of the Kaurna people whom we acknowledge as the original custodians of the Adelaide Region

Father Paul writes 9th of August 2026

We welcome the Rev'd Peter Brown once again this morning as I continue two weeks' annual leave. In our worship today, we hear of one of the most well-known stories about Jesus' walking on water. It is where Jesus comes to his disciples who are battling a storm at night on the Sea of Galilee. It is where Jesus calms their fears and brings them peace.

Next Sunday, we celebrate the "Feast of Title" namely honouring the name of Jesus, otherwise titled St Saviour, in which the church is named. It is like our Patronal Festival which in other churches would normally celebrate the saint which the church is given. The services will be as normal at 8 am and 10 am. There will be morning tea as usual following both services.

St Saviour is holding a Quiz Night on Friday the 21st of August from 7 pm. Tickets are just 20-dollars and can be bought through Sue Lewis or by contacting the Parish Office. Euan Miller will be the Quizmaster. There will be prizes throughout the night. There will be tables of 10 so organise a table or just a ticket or two and you'll be placed at a table with others. The Quiz Night is a fundraiser for the church.

The ABM is hosting a Parish Priest from the Diocese of New Guinea Islands for three months, starting on the 29th of August. Fr Francis Marvin will visit the three dioceses in South Australia as part of the ABM's Encounter Program. The visit comes three years after discussions with the Bishop of New Guinea Islands, Richard Makele and myself in bringing a priest to SA. Fr Francis will be with us on Sunday the 30th of August as our guest speaker and will preach at the Martyrs Day Eucharist at St Cuthberts Prospect on Wednesday the 2nd of September at 6 pm. His itinerary is almost finalised.

St Saviour's will be open once again on Wednesday and Friday mornings from this week between 9 am and midday for prayer and meditation. There will be the opportunity to light a candle and to write the name of a person whom you wish to pray for. Services of Holy Communion will also continue to be held at 10 am on Wednesdays and 7.30 am on Thursdays.

Your friend and priest,

Fr Paul

Sentence for the Day

They cried out in fear, but Jesus spoke to them and said, 'Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.' Matthew 14.26–27

The Collect for the Day

Mighty God and ruler of all creation, give new strength to our faith,
that we may recognise your presence even when all hope seems lost.

Help us to face all trials with serenity
as we walk with Christ through the stormy seas of life and come at the last to your eternal peace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech you,
the spirit to think and do always such things as are right, that we, who cannot do anything that is good without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Genesis

¹ Jacob settled in the land where his father had lived as an alien, the land of Canaan. ² This is the story of the family of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, was shepherding the flock with his brothers; he was a helper to the sons of Bilhah and Zilpah, his father's wives; and Joseph brought a bad report of them to their father. ³ Now Israel loved Joseph more than any other of his children, because he was the son of his old age; and he had made him a long robe with sleeves. ⁴ But when his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they hated him, and could not speak peaceably to him. ¹² Now his brothers went to pasture their father's flock near Shechem. ¹³ And Israel said to Joseph, 'Are not your brothers pasturing the flock at Shechem? Come, I will send you to them.' He answered, 'Here I am.' ¹⁴ So he said to him, 'Go now, see if it is well with your brothers and with the flock; and bring word back to me.' So he sent him from the valley of Hebron. He came to Shechem, ¹⁵ and a man found him wandering in the fields; the man asked him, 'What are you seeking?' ¹⁶ 'I am seeking my brothers,' he said; 'tell me, please, where they are pasturing the flock.' ¹⁷ The man said, 'They have gone away, for I heard them say, "Let us go to Dothan."' So Joseph went after his brothers, and found them at Dothan. ¹⁸ They saw him from a distance, and before he came near to them, they conspired to kill him. ¹⁹ They said to one another, 'Here comes this dreamer. ²⁰ Come now, let us kill him and throw him into one of the pits; then we shall say that a wild animal has devoured him, and we shall see what will become of his dreams.' ²¹ But when Reuben heard it, he delivered him out of their hands, saying, 'Let us not take his life.' ²² Reuben said to them, 'Shed no blood; throw him into this pit here in the wilderness, but lay no hand on him'—that he might rescue him out of their hand and restore him to his father. ²³ So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe, the long robe with sleeves that he wore; ²⁴ and they took him and threw him into a pit. The pit was empty; there was no water in it. ²⁵ Then they sat down to eat; and looking up they saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead, with their camels carrying gum, balm, and resin, on their way to carry it down to Egypt. ²⁶ Then Judah said to his brothers, 'What profit is there if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? ²⁷ Come, let us sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not lay our hands on him, for he is our brother, our own flesh.' And his brothers agreed. ²⁸ When some Midianite traders passed by, they drew Joseph up, lifting him out of the pit, and sold him to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. And they took Joseph to Egypt.

Psalm 85.8-13

⁸ I will hear what the Lord God will speak:

for he will speak peace to his people, to his faithful ones, whose hearts are turned to him.

⁹ Truly his salvation is near to those that fear him:
and his glory shall dwell in our land.

¹⁰ Mercy and truth are met together:

righteousness and peace have kissed each other;

¹¹ Truth shall flourish out of the earth:
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

¹² The Lord will also give us all that is good:

and our land shall yield its plenty.

¹³ For righteousness shall go before him:
and tread the path before his feet.

APBA

A reading from the letter of Romans

⁴ For Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes. ⁵ Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that ‘the person who does these things will live by them.’ ⁶ But the righteousness that comes from faith says, ‘Do not say in your heart, “Who will ascend into heaven?” ’ (that is, to bring Christ down) ⁷ ‘or “Who will descend into the abyss?” ’ (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸ But what does it say? ‘The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart’ (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); ⁹ because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. ¹⁰ For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. ¹¹ The scripture says, ‘No one who believes in him will be put to shame.’ ¹² For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. ¹³ For, ‘Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.’ ¹⁴ But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? ¹⁵ And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, ‘How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!’

Romans 10.4-15

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew chapter 14, beginning at verse 22

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

²² Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. ²³ And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, ²⁴ but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. ²⁵ And early in the morning he came walking towards them on the lake. ²⁶ But when the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified, saying, ‘It is a ghost!’ And they cried out in fear. ²⁷ But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, ‘Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.’ ²⁸ Peter answered him, ‘Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.’ ²⁹ He said, ‘Come.’ So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came towards Jesus. ³⁰ But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, ‘Lord, save me!’ ³¹ Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, ‘You of little faith, why did you doubt?’ ³² When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³ And those in the boat worshipped him, saying, ‘Truly you are the Son of God.’ ³⁴ When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. ³⁵ After the people of that place recognized him, they sent word throughout the region and brought all who were sick to him, ³⁶ and begged him that they might touch even the fringe of his cloak; and all who touched it were healed. Matthew 14.22-36

*This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
