Father Paul writes 30th of August 2026

I welcome you to St Saviour's Glen Osmond. If you are a visitor, please make yourself known and join us for morning tea afterwards.

Last Sunday, we heard of Jesus questioning the disciples and asking who they thought he was. Simon Peter stated he was the Messiah, the Son of God. Jesus asked this as he was about to start his final journey to Jerusalem and where in today's Gospel reading, Jesus foretells his suffering and death. We see this faithfulness of Jesus and the kind of faithfulness that is demanded of those who will follow him.

On Wednesday during our 10 am service, we will remember the martyrs of New Guinea. They were missionaries, teachers and nurses who were killed by the Japanese when they invaded Papua New Guinea in 1942. We will also remember them at the annual Martyrs Day Service at St Cuthbert's Prospect at 6 pm on that day, of which you are all welcome. The Bishop of Willochra, Jeremy James will preside and celebrate at the service. One of the martyrs, Lila Lashmar was a parishioner at St Cuthbert's before she moved to PNG. All are welcome.

During the month of September, St Saviour's marks the Season of Creation, otherwise known as Creationtide. The season is dedicated to God and Sustainer of all life. The theme for the Season of Creation in 2026 is living water, based on Ezekiel 47: 1-12. It is a call for transformation – that Christians will be immersed in the living water flowing from the throne of God and inspired by the Spirit of God, in working together for the renewal of Creation. The theme is particularly relevant given the devastation caused by the torrent of water from a glacier in Nepal in the past week. The Season of Creation begins on Tuesday (September the 1st) and finishes on Sunday the 4th of October, around the commemoration of St Francis of Assisi. It is where we invite all pet owners, to bring their dogs, cats, birds or whatever to be blessed for the annual Blessing of the Pets. The Season of Creation will also be marked each Sunday during September.

Next Sunday is Father's Day where we give thanks for Dad's in our prayers. I certainly welcome as always families to be part of the service at 10 am next Sunday and to give thanks for their role in family life and to pray for them. It is also a Sunday (the first Sunday of the month) where we have promoted "Kids at Church", that is giving more emphasis in inviting families and children to our service on that day.

Your friend and priest,
Paul

Sentence for the Day

If you want to become a disciple of Jesus, deny yourself, take up your cross and follow him. Matthew 16.24–25

The Collect for the Day

O God,
whose Son has shown the way of the cross to be the way of life:
transform and renew our minds
that we may not be conformed to this world but may offer ourselves wholly to you as a living sacrifice through Jesus Christ our Saviour;
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion, nourish us with all goodness,
and of your great mercy keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Jeremiah

<sup>15</sup> O Lord , you know;
remember me and visit me,
and bring down retribution for me on my persecutors.

In your forbearance do not take me away;
know that on your account I suffer insult.

<sup>16</sup> Your words were found, and I ate them,
and your words became to me a joy
and the delight of my heart;

for I am called by your name,
O Lord , God of hosts.

<sup>17</sup> I did not sit in the company of merry-makers, nor did I rejoice;
under the weight of your hand I sat alone,
for you had filled me with indignation.

<sup>18</sup> Why is my pain unceasing,
my wound incurable,
refusing to be healed?

Truly, you are to me like a deceitful brook,
like waters that fail.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, thus says the Lord :

If you turn back, I will take you back,
and you shall stand before me.

If you utter what is precious, and not what is worthless,
you shall serve as my mouth.

It is they who will turn to you,
not you who will turn to them.

<sup>20</sup> And I will make you to this people
a fortified wall of bronze;

they will fight against you,
but they shall not prevail over you,

for I am with you
to save you and deliver you, says the Lord .

<sup>21</sup> I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked,
and redeem you from the grasp of the ruthless.

Jeremiah 15.15-21

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Psalm 26. 1-8

<sup>1</sup> Give judgement for me, O Lord,
for I have walked in my integrity:

I have trusted in the Lord and not wavered.

<sup>2</sup> Put me to the test, O Lord, and prove me:
try my mind and my heart.

<sup>3</sup> For your steadfast love has been ever before my eyes:
and I have walked in your truth.

<sup>4</sup> I have not sat with deceivers:
nor consorted with the hypocrites;

<sup>5</sup> I hate the assembly of the wicked:
I will not sit with the ungodly.

<sup>6</sup> I wash my hands in innocence, O Lord:
that I may go about your altar,

<sup>7</sup> And lift up the voice of thanksgiving:
to tell of all your marvellous works.

<sup>8</sup> Lord, I love the house of your habitation:
and the place where your glory dwells.

APBA

A reading from Paul's letter to the Romans

<sup>9</sup> Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; <sup>10</sup> love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. <sup>11</sup> Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. <sup>12</sup> Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. <sup>13</sup> Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. <sup>14</sup> Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. <sup>15</sup> Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. <sup>16</sup> Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. <sup>17</sup> Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. <sup>18</sup> If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. <sup>19</sup> Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, 'Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.' <sup>20</sup> No, 'if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads.’ <sup>21</sup> Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 12.9-21

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts,
That we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

*The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew chapter 16, beginning at verse 21

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>21</sup> From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. <sup>22</sup> And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, ‘God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.’ <sup>23</sup> But he turned and said to Peter, ‘Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.’ <sup>24</sup> Then Jesus told his disciples, ‘If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. <sup>25</sup> For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. <sup>26</sup> For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? <sup>27</sup> ‘For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. <sup>28</sup> Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom.’

Matthew 16.21-28

*This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Archbishop's Certificate Module 8 - Sharing your Faith in Everyday Life

Archbishop's Certificate Module 8 – Sharing your Faith in Everyday Life:

Growing in confidence and skill to speak of faith with wisdom and grace

Led by Rev'd Helen Phillips

Tuesdays, 7pm – 8.30pm, 25 August, 1, 15 and 29 September, or repeated on Wednesdays, 10am – 12noon, 26 August, 2, 16 and 30 September.

The Wednesday session starts with a Eucharist service in the church.

St Saviour's Anglican Church, Glen Osmond

Many Christians would like to speak more naturally about their faith but feel anxious about the idea of evangelism or are unsure where to begin. This module offers a gentle and practical introduction to sharing your faith in everyday life, helping participants lower that anxiety and discover that they do not need to think of themselves as evangelists to grow in this area.

Through Scripture, reflection, discussion, and simple exercises, participants will grow in confidence and skill to listen well, ask thoughtful questions, recognise spiritual openness, and speak of faith with wisdom and grace. The focus is not on pressure or technique, but on forming ordinary Christians for faithful, prayerful, and relational witness in daily life.

Honour the martyrs by supporting literacy in Papua New Guinea

As the Second World War reached Papua New Guinea, twelve Anglican martyrs chose to remain in that country with the people they loved. They were teachers, nurses, priests, builders and evangelists – servant leaders who embodied Christ’s love in action.

The story of the New Guinea Martyrs is a living witness to faith, courage and the call for peace.

Today, we honour their memory through the Martyrs Gift – supporting education, strong leadership and brighter futures for our neighbours in Papua New Guinea.

Your gift of literacy opens doors of opportunity

Papua New Guinea has a wealth of natural resources, yet for ordinary people, subsistence living is still a daily reality. Many families cannot afford the fees to keep children in school, meaning that students drop out before learning to read, write and do basic maths.

But with your generous support, we are working with our local Anglican partner to run adult literacy classes, giving people a precious second chance at an education.
