

Father Paul writes – 9th of August 2026

. We welcome the Rev'd Peter Brown once again this morning as I continue two weeks' annual leave. In our worship today, we hear of one of the most well-known stories about Jesus' walking on water. It is where Jesus comes to his disciples who are battling a storm at night on the Sea of Galilee. It is where Jesus calms their fears and brings them home. Next Sunday, we celebrate the "Feast of Title" namely honouring the name of Jesus, otherwise titled St Saviour, in which the church is named. It is like our Patronal Festival which in other churches would normally celebrate the saint which the church is given. The services will be as normal at 8 am and 10 am. There will be morning tea as usual following both services. St Saviour is holding a Quiz Night on Friday the 21st of August from 7 pm. Tickets are just 20-dollars and can be bought through Sue Lewis or by contacting the Parish Office. Euan Miller will be the Quizmaster. There will be prizes throughout the night. There will be tables of 10 so organise a table or just a ticket or two and you'll be placed at a table with others. The Quiz Night is a fundraiser for the church. The ABM is hosting a Parish Priest from the Diocese of New Guinea Islands for three months, starting on the 29th of August. Fr Francis Marvin will visit the three dioceses in South Australia as part of the ABM's Encounter Program. The visit comes three years after discussions with the Bishop of New Guinea Islands, Richard Makele and myself in bringing a priest to SA. Fr Francis will be with us on Sunday the 30th of August as our guest speaker and will preach at the Martyrs Day Eucharist at St Cuthberts Prospect on Wednesday the 2nd of September at 6 pm. His itinerary is almost finalised. St Saviour's will be open once again on Wednesday and Friday mornings from this week between 9 am and midday for prayer and meditation. There will be the opportunity to light a candle and to write the name of a person whom you wish to pray for. Services of Holy Communion will also continue to be held at 10 am on Wednesdays and 7.30 am on Thursdays.
