Vision Statement:

Sharing the love of Jesus Christ and the hope it brings to all
St Saviour's resides on the lands of the Kaurna people whom we acknowledge as the original custodians of the Adelaide Region

Father Paul writes 11th of October 2026

Welcome to St Saviour's Glen Osmond and to our preacher today the Assistant Curate of Kidman Park/Mile End, Rev'd Jack Monaghan. Jack joins us as part of Vocations Month in the Diocese of Adelaide following his ordination to the priesthood last year, but even more recently in being appointed as the Rector of the Parish of Enmore/Stammore in the Diocese of Sydney. Vocations Month during the month of October is an opportunity to give those either recently ordained or being ordained soon, the opportunity to gain experience in another parish in the Diocese. The month is also a chance for those exploring vocation, to ascertain whether they may have a calling from God to ministry, to attend a Seekers Day at St Barnabas College on the 24th of October. Details are in the pew sheet.

Paper and online forms for the National Church Life Survey for 2026 are now available over the next couple of weeks to fill out. St Saviour's along with 90 per cent of the parishes in the Diocese are taking part in the survey, which is run every five years. The survey will give us and the national church an opportunity to share their experiences, support research for church ministry and provide statistics about churches nationally. You are welcome to fill out the form today or to take it home with you and return it next week. The survey takes about 20 minutes to complete. The church code for St Saviour's is ANA12401. You can also fill out the form online. Just type in attendersurvey.ncls.au and enter the church code. If there are technical difficulties filling it out, just use the paper form.

Next weekend, the Diocese of Adelaide will hold its annual Synod. It will start on Friday at 7 pm at St Peter's Cathedral with the Synod Eucharist and will continue at St Peter's College on Saturday and Sunday. The Synod is represented by Sue Lewis, Judy Bowyer and I from St Saviour's. It will be the first Synod with our new Archbishop, Brad Billings. There is some legislation to pass but also the opportunity for synod members to workshop the new vision statement for the diocese, along with its mission priorities for the next five years.

Thank you to all those who attended with their dogs at the Blessing of the Pets Service last Sunday. It was wonderful to have ten dogs to bless. As I discovered, some needed a blessing for one reason or another, which was reassuring for their owners. Next Sunday, we celebrate St. Luke, the evangelist and martyr who wrote the Gospel of Luke and the Book of Acts. He is also the patron saint of doctors and painters.

Your friend and priest,
Paul

Sentence for the Day

This is our God for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation. Isaiah 25.9

The Collect for the Day

Saving and healing God,
you have promised
that those who have died with Christ shall live with him:
grant us grace to be continually thankful for all you have done for us,
and in that thankfulness
to be eager to serve and live for others,
so that we and all your children may rejoice in your salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

Almighty God,
in your wisdom you have so ordered our earthly life
that we must walk by faith and not by sight:
give us such trust in your fatherly care
that in the face of all perplexities
we may give proof of our faith
by the courage of our lives;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Exodus

¹ When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron and said to him, 'Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' ² Aaron said to them, 'Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me.' ³ So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. ⁴ He took the gold from them, formed it in a mould, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!' ⁵ When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, 'Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord.' ⁶ They rose early the next day, and offered burnt-offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel. ⁷ The Lord said to Moses, 'Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; ⁸ they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshipped it and sacrificed to it, and said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!"' ⁹ The Lord said to Moses, 'I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. ¹⁰ Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation.' ¹¹ But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, 'O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? ¹² Why should the Egyptians say, "It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth"? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. ¹³ Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, "I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it for ever." ' ¹⁴ And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

Exodus 32.1-14

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm 106.1-6; 106.20-24

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good:
and his mercy endures for ever.

² Who can express the mighty acts of the Lord:
or fully voice his praise?

³ Blessed are those who act according to justice:
who at all times do the right.

⁴ Remember me, O Lord,
when you visit your people with your favour:
and come to me also with your salvation,

⁵ That I may see the prosperity of your chosen:
that I may rejoice with the rejoicing of your people,
and exult with those who are your own.

⁶ We have sinned like our ancestors:
we have acted perversely and done wrong.

²⁰ At Horeb they made themselves a calf:
and bowed down in worship to an image.

²¹ And so they exchanged the glory of God:
for the likeness of an ox that eats hay.

²² They forgot God who was their saviour:
that had done such great things in Egypt,

²³ Who had worked his wonders in the land of Ham:
and his terrible deeds at the Red Sea.

²⁴ Therefore he thought to destroy them:
had not Moses his servant stood before him in the breach,
to turn away his wrath from destroying them.

A reading from the letter to the Philippians

¹ Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved. ² I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. ³ Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. ⁵ Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. ⁶ Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

⁷ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. ⁸ Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. ⁹ Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Philippians 4.1-9

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
enlighten the eyes of our heart
that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called

Alleluia!

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew chapter 22, beginning at verse 1

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

¹ Once more Jesus spoke to them in parables, saying: ² ‘The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. ³ He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. ⁴ Again he sent other slaves, saying, “Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.” ⁵ But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, ⁶ while the rest seized his slaves, maltreated them, and killed them. ⁷ The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. ⁸ Then he said to his slaves, “The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. ⁹ Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.” ¹⁰ Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests. ¹¹ ‘But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, ¹² and he said to him, “Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?” And he was speechless. ¹³ Then the king said to the attendants, “Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” ¹⁴ For many are called, but few are chosen.’

Matthew 22.1-14

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.
