Vision Statement:

Sharing the love of Jesus Christ and the hope it brings to all
St Saviour's resides on the lands of the Kaurna people whom we acknowledge as the original custodians of the Adelaide Region

Father Paul writes 18th of October 2026

I welcome you all as we today celebrate St Luke an evangelist and martyr. He is the writer of St Luke's Gospel and the Book of Acts. He was also a physician, he was a loyal companion to Paul, and he is the patron saint of doctors and healing.

In today's Gospel reading from Luke – Jesus sends out 70 of his followers into various communities and villages, ahead of him, as he makes his way to Jerusalem. The mission of these 70 people was the same as Jesus' ministry: to cure the sick and tell others that the kingdom of God has come near to you.

We hear this Gospel reading today with this continuing challenge passed onto us. Jesus invites us to widen our understanding of mission and salvation to embrace an inclusive, pluralistic and universal vision in our journey as disciples. The Good News of Jesus Christ is not our private possession but one that needs to be shared and multiplied in the concrete situations of our daily life.

This is the focus of a new vision which has been considered by the Synod of the Diocese of Adelaide this weekend. A workshop was held as part of Synod to consider a proposed framework in how as a diocese representing 58 parishes grows, in sharing the Gospel and renewing worshipping communities. Also, in connecting in a shared mission between neighbouring parishes, partnerships with schools, Anglicare and chaplaincies, in caring for the wider community and being a faithful public witness, working for justice, reconciliation and the common good.

Looking further ahead, the Melbourne Cup Friendship Lunch will be held at St Saviour's on Tuesday the 3rd of November. The cost is amazingly just ten dollars for the lunch but come along with some cash for the prizes on the day. There will also be a prize for the best dressed. You can register by placing your name on the Friendship Lunch sheet at the back of the church or by contacting Sue Lewis on 0431 151 552. Please bring along your friends as well.

On Sunday the 1st of November, we will be remembering those who have gone before us at a memorial service at 4.30 pm at St Saviour's. It is a service which coincides with the celebration of All Saints Day on Sunday at 8 am and 10 am.

With every blessing,
Paul

Sentence for the Day

The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; ask therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Luke 10:2

The Collect for the Day

Almighty God,
who inspired your servant Luke the physician
to set forth in his gospel
the love and healing power of your Son:
graciously continue in your Church
this love and power to heal,
to the praise and glory of your name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

Almighty God,
your Son has opened for us
a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills
to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Jeremiah

²² Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my poor people not been restored? ⁹¹ O that my head were a spring of water, and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my poor people! ² O that I had in the desert a traveller's lodging-place, that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, a band of traitors. ³ They bend their tongues like bows; they have grown strong in the land for falsehood, and not for truth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know me, says the Lord.

Jeremiah 8.22-9.3

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm 145.10-18

¹⁰ All creation praises you, O Lord:

and your faithful servants bless your name.

¹¹ They speak of the glory of your kingdom:

and tell of your great might,

¹² That the whole earth may know your mighty acts:

and the glorious splendour of your kingdom.

¹³ Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom:

and your dominion endures through all generations.

¹⁴ The Lord upholds all those who stumble:

and raises up those that are bowed down.

¹⁵ The eyes of all look to you in hope:

and you give them their food in due season;

¹⁶ You open wide your hand:

and fill all things living with your bounteous gift.

¹⁷ The Lord is just in all his ways:

and faithful in all his dealings.

¹⁸ The Lord is near to all who call upon him:

to all who call upon him in truth.

A reading from the second letter to Timothy

⁹ Do your best to come to me soon, ¹⁰ for Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica; Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia. ¹¹ Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is useful in my ministry. ¹² I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. ¹³ When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments. ¹⁴ Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will pay him back for his deeds. ¹⁵ You also must beware of him, for he strongly opposed our message. ¹⁶ At my first defence no one came to my support, but all deserted me. May it not be counted against them! ¹⁷ But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

2 Timothy 4.9-17a

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord,
to go and bear fruit that will last.

Alleluia!

*The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke chapter 10, beginning at verse 1

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

¹ After this the Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. ² He said to them, ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. ³ Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. ⁴ Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. ⁵ Whatever house you enter, first say, “Peace to this house!” ⁶ And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. ⁷ Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. ⁸ Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; ⁹ cure the sick who are there, and say to them, “The kingdom of God has come near to you.”

Luke 10.1-9

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

For Such a Time as This: Church Planting & Regeneration Forum Saturday, 7 November 9:30am – 3:30pm | St Columba College

We live in interesting and challenging times, not least of which as a church. What is God calling us to be and do in this season and in the coming years? How are we ensuring that the legacy of faith entrusted to us is being passed on to future generations?

We would love you to come along on 7 November to participate in these ongoing conversations. Archbishop Brad is hosting a gathering with special guests to explore ways to think missionally and creatively about our local churches, church planting, and the future. With time for discussion and questions, we'll hear from experienced leaders about how our churches can be transformative, including what's already happening here in Adelaide.

We especially welcome clergy and lay people from parishes and congregations to attend together.

Guest presenters - The Venerable Dr Bree Mills (Archdeacon for Church Planting, Anglican Diocese of Melbourne) and The Reverend Paul Harrington (Senior Network Pastor, Trinity Church Network).

All welcome, please RSVP via Father Paul or Beth Walton
