Vision Statement:
Sharing the love of Jesus Christ and the hope it brings to all
St Saviour's resides on the lands of the Kaurna people whom we acknowledge as the original custodians of the Adelaide Region

Father Paul writes 1st of November 2026

We celebrate today the countless multitude of people including many whom we have known, who are now in heaven. They are not the canonized saints but all the good and holy people that have lived. We remember them and continue to be inspired by the qualities they revealed in their lives in humility, a concern for justice, gentleness, purity of heart, mercy and courage. We take comfort in knowing that from their home in heaven, they intercede for us still. Today's celebration of All Saints also reminds us of our deep-calling to become better people than we currently are and to practice what Jesus Christ preached and to live with what we believe.

This afternoon, we commemorate the faithful departed with a memorial service at 4.30 pm in the church. It is where we express our unity with them by praying for the eternal repose of their souls and lighting a candle in memory of them. It will be a simple liturgy, some reflective music and prayers. The service will be followed by an afternoon tea in the hall adjacent to the church. Please place the name of anyone whom you wish to have remembered at the service in the narthex, at the entrance of the church.

My thanks to the Rev'd Peter Brown and to the Rev'd Deb Jeanes taking our services today, so I could attend the ABM Board meeting in Sydney and travel to Port Douglas to preside at a wedding. The couple whom I am marrying I have known for some years. They attended our Children's Service on Christmas Eve last year and where they asked me to marry them. They now live near Cairns.

On Tuesday, we meet for our friendship lunch and to join in with some fun being the day when the nation stops to watch the race, the Melbourne Cup. It is always a lot of fun along with watching the race. Lunch starts at 12.30 pm and is just ten dollars. There will be sweeps available and a prize for the fanciest and most appropriate female outfit for the day and for the best male attire. Please place your name and anyone else you have invited on the sheet at the back of the church today or call Sue Lewis on 0431 151 552.

Thank you to all those who assisted at the Mitre 10 BBQ at Unley last Saturday. The BBQ is an outreach for the church and is a parish fundraiser. About 400 dollars was raised. Our next BBQ will be on Saturday November the 28th.
Your friend and priest,
Paul

Sentence for the Day

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Matthew 5.10

The Collect for the Day

We praise you, heavenly Father,
that you have knit together your chosen ones
in one communion and fellowship
in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord:
give us grace so to follow your blessed saints
in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys
you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour,
who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns,
one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The Collect for the Week

God our Father,
whose will it is to bring all things to order
and unity in our Lord Jesus Christ:
may all the peoples of the world,
now divided and torn apart by sin,
be brought together under his sovereign rule of love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A reading from the book of Revelation

9 After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands.10 They cried out in a loud voice, saying, ‘Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!’ 11 And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God,12 singing, ‘Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.’ 13 Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, ‘Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?’ 14 I said to him, ‘Sir, you are the one that knows.’ Then he said to me, ‘These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. 15 For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. 16 They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; 17 for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.’ Revelation 7.9-17

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Psalm 34.1-10 & 22

1 I will bless the Lord continually:
his praise shall be always in my mouth.
2 Let my soul boast of the Lord:
the humble shall hear it and rejoice.
3 O praise the Lord with me:
let us exalt his name together.
4 For I sought the Lord’s help and he answered:
and he freed me from all my fears.
5 Look towards him and be bright with joy:
your faces shall not be ashamed.
6 Here is a wretch who cried, and the Lord heard me:

and saved me from all my troubles.
[7] The angel of the Lord encamps round those who fear him:
and delivers them in their need.
[8] O taste and see that the Lord is good:
happy are they that hide in him!
[9] Fear the Lord, all you his holy ones:
for those who fear him never lack.
[10] Lions may suffer want and go hungry:
but those who seek the Lord lack nothing good.
[22] The Lord ransoms the lives of his servants:
and none who hide in him will be destroyed. APBA

A reading from the first letter of John

[1] See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. [2] Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. [3] And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure. 1 John 3.1-3

This is the word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew chapter 5, beginning at verse 1

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

1 When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. 2 Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying: 3 'Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 4 'Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
5 'Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. 6 'Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. 7 'Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. 8 'Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. 9 'Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. 10 'Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 11 'Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. 12 Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Matthew 5.1-12

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Church Planting & Regeneration Forum
Saturday, 7 November 9:30am – 3:30pm
St Columba College, Andrews Farm.
We live in interesting and challenging times, not least of which as a church. What is God calling us to be and do in this season and in the coming years? How are we ensuring that the legacy of faith entrusted to us is being passed on to future generations?
We would love you to come along on the 7th of November to participate in these ongoing conversations. Archbishop Brad is hosting a gathering with special guests to explore ways to think missionally and creatively about our local churches, church planting, and the future. With time for discussion and questions, we'll hear from experienced leaders about how our churches can be transformative, including what's already happening here in Adelaide.
We especially welcome clergy and lay people from parishes and congregations to attend together.
Guest presenters - The Venerable Dr Bree Mills (Archdeacon for Church Planting, Anglican Diocese of Melbourne) and The Reverend Paul Harrington (Senior Network Pastor, Trinity Church Network).
Lunch provided. Please bring a water bottle and notebook/pen or device to take notes if you would like.
All welcome, please RSVP via Eventbrite by clicking this link - ChurchPlanting. Please let Fr Paul or Beth Walton know on 0438 916 499 if you would like to attend.

Day Of Prayer For Our Diocesan Vision

On Saturday the 21st of November, there will be a special day of prayer, to support and seek discernment for the Diocese of Adelaide Vision.

Sessions will run from 9:00am – 4:00pm, with different leaders from around the Diocese utilising a range of prayer types and approaches.

We do not expect you to come for the whole day (although you would be most welcome), but to choose a time that suits you. 'Come when you can; leave when you must' is the model for the day.

This is an exciting time to be a part of the Anglican Diocese of Adelaide, as collectively we work towards a flourishing future for every ministry, current and emerging.

It is vital that we prayerfully discern who and what God is calling us to be, and that we do this together. Please plan to come along and join in.

Boxes will be available for collection during November…..the last Sunday for collection will be Sunday the 29th of November.
